PROCLAMATION

One of the first steps taken by our forefathers in the founding of this American continent was the establishment of school systems. This undertaking has progressed continuously and favorably through prosperity and adversity. Education begins at our mother's knee, has for its object the formation of character, and should prepare us for complete living. Centuries ago Cicero made this statement, which is pertinent today: "What greater or better gift can we offer the republic than to teach and instruct our youth."

Every institution which has for its purpose the training and preparation of our youth for the obligations of citizenship and the responsibilities of life should have our wholehearted support and encouragement.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Leslie Jensen, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby set aside and proclaim November 7-13, 1937, as

and urge that during this week each citizen of our State discover how he can use his influence to improve conditions in his own school or schools and cooperate to the fullest extent in every effort to better educational facilities and opportunities.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be hereto affixed.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL, in the City of Pierre, this 1st day of October, 1937.
